

Public Health Analysis

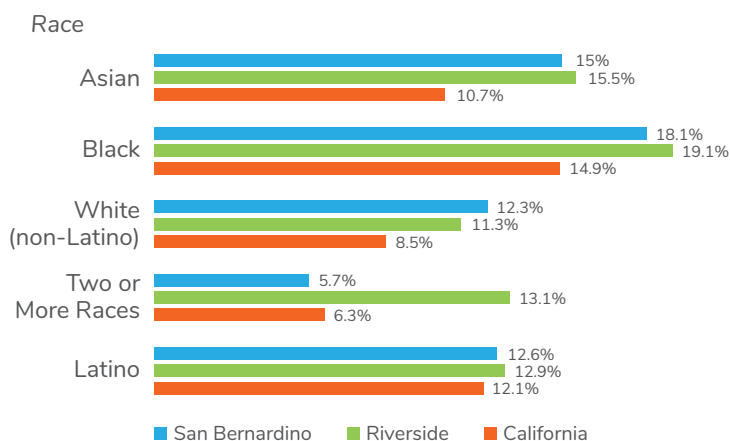

RIVERSIDE AND SAN BERNARDINO COUNTIES

Thrive Inland SoCal is a comprehensive, collaborative, and inclusive regional economic development effort working to boost quality job creation and expand access to quality jobs and wealth-building for all Inland Empire residents, especially those that have been historically disinvested and underrepresented.

The majority of the region's racial groups have higher percentages of diabetes than the state.

Ever diagnosed with Diabetes, by Race

Source: California Health Interview Survey, data pooled for 2018–2022

The majority of the region's racial groups have higher rates of diabetes than the state.

Ever diagnosed with Asthma, by Race

Source: California Health Interview Survey, data pooled for 2018–2022

Most Polluted — Ozone and Particulate Pollution

San Bernardino County

1st

Riverside County

2nd

Source: American Lung Association Rankings

Asthma Rates

~1 in 7 residents have asthma in some San Bernardino County census tracts

Source: Center for Disease Control and Prevention, 2020. Crude prevalence of current asthma among adults ≥ 18 years. Data source: <https://www.cdc.gov/nceh/tracking/topics/asthma.htm>

Other Factors Impacting Public Health

- Poverty
- Education
- Food Insecurity
- Structural Racism
- Urban Sprawl
- Access to Care
- Employment & Income

Healthcare Access

Riverside County

17.9%

delayed or did not seek treatment

Source: CHIS 2019

San Bernardino County

15.8%

delayed or did not
seek treatment

Healthcare Coverage

Riverside County

7.4%

had no healthcare
coverage

San Bernardino County

8.1%

had no healthcare
coverage

Physician Availability

Riverside County

1:2,353

PCP to resident ratio

San Bernardino County

1:1,710

PCP to resident ratio

Thrive Inland SoCal is building partnerships and growing the capacity needed to make a more prosperous future a reality. JOIN US in exploring the challenges and opportunities by attending an upcoming meeting.

For more details, meeting dates and contact info, visit

ThriveInlandSoCal.org

This factsheet covers one of seven key topics shaping our region's economic growth. While each topic has its own factsheet for clarity, sometimes we discuss multiple topics together to highlight how economic development is complex and connected in different ways.

